

Personal data protection

The www.ppa.sk website information system is operated by PPA CONTROLL, a.s., Comp. Reg. No. 17055164, Tax Reg. No. 2020459078, registered office: Vajnorská 137, 830 00 Bratislava.

Personal data is gathered in it in order to promote sales and the need to send feedback to questions and suggestions relating to the website and the company's activities.

The operator does not provide personal data from this information system to third parties or does not make it available to other recipients, except for the obligations resulting to the operator from specific laws.

Under Act No. 122/2013 Coll. on Protection of Personal Data, as amended by certain laws, the website or contact form user, as the person concerned, has the right to request from the operator, in writing, a confirmation whether the personal data concerning him/her is being processed, information concerning the processing of personal data in the information system, specific information about the source from which his/her personal data has been collected, a list of his/her personal data, which is subject of processing, correction or destruction of his/her incorrect, incomplete or outdated personal data which is subject of processing, destruction of his/her personal data where the purpose of processing has ended, destruction of his/her personal data that is subject of processing in case of a violation of the law, blocking of his/her personal data due to his/her withdrawal of consent before the expiry of its validity, if the operator processes personal data on the basis of his/her consent.

Other rights of the person concerned are governed by Article 28 of the Act. For inquiries regarding the protection of your personal data, please contact us via our e-mail address: ppa@ppa.sk.

This website and its sub-pages use the cookie technology. This technology collects and stores information about user behaviour on this website and its sub-pages and allows us to customise the content and design of this website and its sub-pages to make it more accessible to users. This website does not store information about the behaviour of individual specific users, but some features of the cookies technology can be used for anonymous statistical surveys or for marketing and promotional purposes of other, even third parties. If the user of this website does not agree with this website policy of using the cookies technology, he/she is free at any time to delete cookies associated with this website from his/her computer, ban the storing of cookies for this website directly in his/her browser settings, or to access this website in the browser mode, which does not allow the storage of cookies. In this case, the operator does not guarantee full availability of individual pages and services.